

THE SECRETS TO MY SUCCESS

It may have been the juice box, or the salami sandwich...or perhaps the granola bar, but, every day, there was something about that paper bag lunch that was my mom's way of letting me know how much she cared about me. It was just one of the secrets to my success.

“FEED KIDS HUNGRY TO SUCCEED”

Here's another secret. Children are born hungry to succeed, but they need nurturing to reach their dreams. Adults who can't read were once children who never learned how. Help feed children hungry to read so they can be successful like you - so they can grow up and do well in school, and live better lives - as good moms and dads able to read to their own children - and as the teachers, engineers, and entrepreneurs who fuel our economy.
